

Underfloor Heating Now.
Not tomorrow. Not next week. Nor in the fullness of time.

But, right this very minute.

With no feeble excuses about lack of stock.

Or delivery vans that need new tyres.

Or designers who've decided to extend their maternity leave by as many months as they can wring out of the company.

Nope, if you want it now,
you can have it now.

That's a promise.

And we're not just talking product.

We're talking advice, designs, quotes,
and even drinkable coffee.

In fact, there's very little we don't know,
or talk about, when it comes to warming floors.

Impressed so far?

Good, now call Bernard right away on 01202 894976

He's waiting by the percolator desperate to chat to anyone.

Poor sod.
