

Underfloor Heating Now.

Not to be confused with the fairly innocuous question – “underfloor heating, now?”

Or, “underfloor heating, right this minute?”

Or, “underfloor heating, in a jiffy?”

Or, before you can say Jack Robinson?

Or, whatever.

Admittedly, they all mean the same thing, except in our case Underfloor Heating Now is a company name.

Our company name.

And it was chosen for a specific reason.

To emphasise the fact that we supply products, quotes, designs and advice extremely quickly.

And not when we feel like it, or after young Danny’s returned from his holiday in Ibiza.

Oh, no, it’s spontaneous.

Try calling Bernard on 01202 894976 to get an immediate response.

But make it snappy.

He’s only got the one line.
